Multilingual Dictionaries of Film Vocabulary: A Bibliography Compiled by Hans J. Wulff and Klaus-Peter Hess

Inhalt:

Bibliography

Index of Languages

Index of Lexicographical Domains

The “Bibliography of Film Dictionaries” lists all dictionaries dealing with cinema terminology including essential related areas such as theatre, photography, television, etc.

We didn't judge or criticize the reliability of translations offered by various dictionaries – not even we noticed inaccuracies or errors. First, many of the languages the dictionaries referred to were unknown to us; second, our aim was the listing and description of film dictionaries, not their (e)valuation; third, this is the second part of a descriptive bibliography of the film reference shelf (for the first part, see our “Bibliography of Film Bibliographies”, this Journal, nos. 4-7).

We tried to get verification of bibliographic information and a reliable description by direct inspection. In case this was not possible, the bibliographic entries are marked by an asterisk (*).

We'd like to acknowledge Bernhard Gröschel.
